Dear Party/Attorney:

Alternative Dispute Resolution or “ADR” is your opportunity to meet with a third, neutral person, who is trained to help people communicate effectively. The neutral attempts to assist you in working out a solution which is fair, reasonable, and acceptable as a way to resolve your legal claims and concerns.

However, ADR may not be appropriate in all cases. Included on the Domestic Relations Initiation Form is a screening section which is designed to help us determine if the case is appropriate for ADR. The ADR Program is required by the Georgia Commission on Dispute Resolution to screen all domestic relations cases. We are required to have each party complete his/her own screening form. The form should be completed and returned to this office at least seven (7) days prior to any scheduled mediation session. If you prefer, this form may be completed online at: <https://godr.org/adr-screening/>.

THESE ANSWERS ARE CONFIDENTIAL AND ARE NOT SUBJECT TO DISCOVERY. If the case is determined inappropriate for ADR, a Release will be filed with the Court stating only that the case is inappropriate for ADR.

Complete and honest answers are important for safety as well as for resolving your dispute as quickly and efficiently as possible. Complete the entire form immediately and return it to the above address (via email, facsimile or U.S. Postal Service).

We appreciate your anticipated cooperation in this matter. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact this office.
