ADR Experience: Professional Mediator/Arbitrator since 2007. Registered with the Georgia Office of Dispute Resolution and on the approved list for the 6th District, Clayton County, and Coweta County.

Professional Experience: Mary M. House is an attorney with her own law firm in Stockbridge and Griffin, Georgia, and a registered Mediator/Arbitrator since 2007. She received her law degree from Mercer University and her undergraduate degree from Emory University. She has been practicing law for the last 24 years. Prior to moving to McDonough in 1998, she practiced law with the Atlanta firm, Gorby, Reeves, Moraitakis and Whiteman, primarily representing doctors, hospitals, school boards and major companies throughout Georgia in various civil matters. She additionally served as in-house counsel for the Georgia Department of Education from 1988-1989. She continues her representation of both Plaintiffs and Defendants, businesses and individuals, in various civil litigation and domestic matters, as well as a general practice. She has found the mediation process to be extremely effective in resolving disputes in her own legal practice.

ADR Experience: As a professional mediator since 2009, I have assisted hundreds of individuals and businesses to reach resolutions of their differences in a wide range of disputes. I believe that being able to help people who are stuck in conflict requires a neutral person who can really listen and hear their concerns. Only then are they able to trust the process enough to consider creative options for resolutions. While I primarily focus on disputes involving families (domestic, juvenile, education, and probate), I also frequently mediate civil matters in a range of areas. I have served as a mediation coach for many training programs.

Professional Experience: I am a registered neutral with GODR in the areas listed above and an active member of the State Bar of Georgia. My practice now is exclusively mediation. My legal experience was with the Georgia Attorney General's Office. I was also an educator in Georgia working with disabled children for many years. I am a professional artist currently self-represented.

Education: Georgia State College of Law, J.D. 1993, Outstanding Woman Law Graduate awarded by Georgia Association of Women Lawyers; Georgia State, M.Ed. with honors, 1982, B.S.Ed. with honors, 1979. Completion of over 300 hours of training in various ADR areas.

ADR Experience: Mrs. Embry Jones has been a registered mediator since 2014. Mrs. Embry Jones has been practicing law since 2008.

Professional Experience: Bethaney Embry Jones is a hardworking, experienced, and passionate attorney who began her legal career working as a Staff Attorney in the DeKalb County Superior Court. As a Staff Attorney, she worked on a high number of Family Law and General Civil Law matters and gained invaluable experience and insight into the manner in which cases are litigated.

Prior to becoming a registered Mediator in Georgia, Ms. Embry handled Mediations in Raleigh, North Carolina after she completed the Superior Court Mediation 40-Hour Course with Carolina Dispute Settlement Services. Bethaney has handled nearly every type of Family Law matter including complex divorces, highly contested custody disputes, contentious move-away proceedings, legitimation, contempt actions, and restraining orders.

Bethaney has also handled a variety of general civil litigation matters that include Contract Law, Foreclosures, Dispossessory Appeals, Home Owners Association Litigation, Medical Malpractice and Automobile Accidents. Bethaney's previous work experience also includes clerking at the Court of Appeals of North Carolina and working at a General Civil Litigation firm. Bethaney is actively involved in the legal community as a member of the Georgia Association of Women Lawyers where she serves on the Foundation Board as Co-Chair of the Grants Committee and previously served as Co-Chair of the Community Service Committee for two years. Bethaney Embry Jones is actively involved in the Atlanta community and she enjoys giving back to the community by volunteering for numerous nonprofit organizations.

ADR Experience: I have served as a mediator since 2006, having conducted over 800 cases. I mediate all types of domestic relations matters including divorce, legitimation, contempt matters and all types of modifications. I specialize in mediating especially difficult divorce and custody cases, including contentious disputes over parenting time, child support, alimony and division of assets. I also have extensive expertise mediating bodily injury, property damage, business disputes, probate, landlord/tenant, and breach of contract. In addition, I have received specialized training for mediating disputes related to educational institutions.

Professional Experience: I am an attorney, licensed to practice law since 2000. I served for 5 years as a Judge Pro Hac and Staff Attorney for the State Court of Fayette County (2007-2011). I adjudicated various civil matters including claims for premises liability, debtor/creditor disputes, automobile accidents and business disputes. I have direct trial experience providing representation for all phases of litigation from pre-suit negotiations through jury trials. I have expertise with determining admissibility of evidence, analyzing applicable law and developing trial strategies. Through mediating, I am able to utilize the knowledge obtained through my judicial experience and practice experience to help parties effectively address disputes.

ADR Experience: Christina is an experienced conflict consultant who has been mediating professionally since 2006 in court annexed programs as well as privately. She is the Founder and Executive Director of Covenant Mediation Services, a conflict resolution organization. Ms. Scott has mediated over 1800 cases and specializes in complex high asset divorce cases and negligent injury cases. She is also skilled in resolving disputes involving contracts, insurance, tax appeals, alimony, custody, and support. Christina also provides limited issue family law arbitration in the areas of property, asset division, and child support. As a dispute resolution professional, her diversified background allows her to bring a well-rounded range of personal and professional skills to each case. Christina strongly believes in the fundamental tenants of mediation: self-determination, neutrality and confidentiality.

Professional Experience: Prior to 2006, her work included boutique law firm experience in the areas of Injury and Family law, executive level corporate sales for a Fortune 1000 company, and a part-time adjunct Business Law Professor. Appointed by Governor Brian Kemp in 2021, Christina currently serves as a member of the GA Commission on Child Support.
